

Bulletin !

Thought for the month:

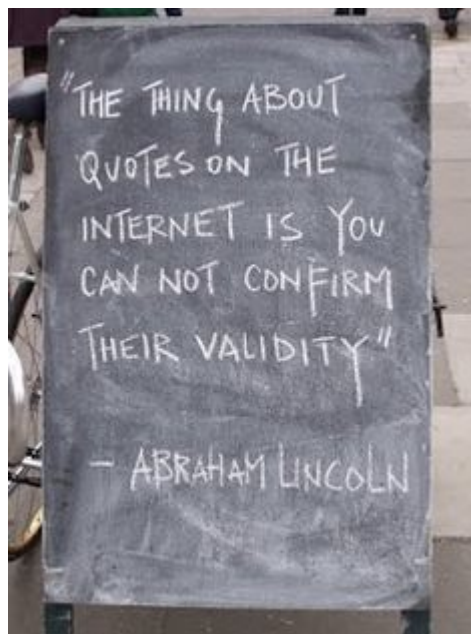

Optimist: someone who figures that taking a step backward after taking a step forward is not a disaster, it's more like a cha-cha.

(Robert Brault)

As you can probably appreciate, with France on lock-down, there is nothing for us to put in here. We don't know when this will change, but The Bulletin will return to normal as soon as the restrictions are officially lifted.

In light of that, we would like to ask that you don't go out unless it's really necessary and remember you're not only safeguarding yourself by doing that, but others too.

And finally ...

Be safe everyone
